1. On 11 October 1949 all Soviets, Germans, Bulgarians and Rumanians reportedly with the Greek Rebel forces were allegedly ordered to leave Greece for Bulgaria and Albania.
2. Subsequently, 142 Soviet military advisers, political commissars, and technicians, formerly with the Rebels, departed from Sofia by air for the Soviet Union. In addition, the most compromised Rebel leaders were flown to Odessa.
3. Heavy weapons used by the Rebels are allegedly being carried to Albania and Bulgaria, while many small arms were being buried or hidden in Greek territory for future use. All Rebel documents and files are being evacuated to Odessa by air under the direction of Soviet Lieutenant Colonel Dimitri Zakhov.
